Important Notes

- In case you have not surrendered your Blue Identity Card, you are required to submit it to "The High Commission of Singapore, Canberra" before applying for your visa at the Joint Visa Application Centre. (Please note that processing time for such cases will be longer and dependent on the ICA).
- Applications may not be lodged earlier than 30 days before the intended entry at the port.
- Consular officer may request a personal interview or further documentation for processing.
- For any non-social visits (business or profession related), you will need to contact the Ministry of Manpower in Singapore beforehand to confirm if you will need to apply for a miscellaneous work pass/exemption.
